SNAP PRINTING CONGRATULATES AFL / NRL FOOTY TIPPING COMPETITION WINNERS

Snap Printing has announced the lucky winners of its AFL / NRL footy tipping competition, one of the most popular tipping competitions in Australia.

Now in its third year, the Snap Printing footy tipping competition was more popular than ever with some 3126 registered tipsters vying for top spot.

Our winners, Chris Christofi and Denny Burgess have each won a seven-night cruise for two on P&O's Pacific Sun to New Caledonia, Loyalty Islands and Vanuatu. Congratulations to both Chris and Denny.

AFL Winner – Chris Christofi, Aerofast Australia

Snap Printing Capalaba customer of some 20 years, Chris Christofi has taken top place in the Snap Printing AFL tipping competition.

He said his method involved supporting teams he felt would do well from the previous season and tipping them in the first few rounds.

“At the start of the season, it is a lot harder to get tips right so there is an element of luck,” Chris said.

“In the past this method hasn't paid off but this year it did,” Chris said.

Once off to a good start, Chris was vigilant with his tipping and didn't let his emotions guide his choices.

Chris' method was clearly effective, achieving 85% accuracy with his tips for the entire season.

John Douglas, owner of Snap Printing Capalaba said it was fantastic that a long-term customer of his won the competition this year.

“Chris and his business, Aerofast Australia, have been clients of mine for close to 20 years so it is great to see him come away with this prize,” John said.

Chris said that although he was excited with the competition win, he tipped mainly for the fun of it and believed he was simply lucky this season.

“I would like to thank Snap Printing for giving me the opportunity to have some fun at work through the footy tipping each week,” Chris said.

NRL Winner – Denny Burgess, Burgess Ventures

The winner of Snap Printing’s NRL tipping competition is a serious NRL supporter. Denny Burgess, customer of Snap Printing Campbelltown, puts his win down to knowing the ins and outs of the NRL and also some good fortune.

The self-confessed NRL fan and Wests Tigers director, Denny watched every league game each week.

“I made sure I studied what was going on each week and kept abreast of the ins and outs so my tips were very educated,” Denny said.

“Because I knew what was going on, the tips seemed to come naturally.”

A professional musician and managing director of event management company Burgess Ventures, Denny found tipping a welcome hobby in his busy life.

His tipping accuracy for the year was 76.3%, the highest of some 1530 tippers.

According to Denny, winning the tipping competition has been a “blessing from heaven.”

“I haven’t had a holiday for five to six years so the trip has come as the right time – we plan on dropping everything and going,” he said.

Denny will take the trip with his wife Clare and son Cole.

Centre Manager, Snap Campbelltown, Troy Shooter, said it was fantastic that one of his clients won the NRL tipping competition.

“Burgess Ventures is a longstanding client of ours and Denny is a deserving winner of this prize”
